

Where to See the World's Best Sunsets

Excerpted from an article by Paul Rubio
May 6, 2016

Sure, we all dream of a safari filled with lion, rhino, and elephant encounters, but often East Africa's most poignant take-home memories are the sunsets.

On Micato Safaris, the crew ensures a premiere front-row seat to the day's most epic event—the African sun painting the land in reds and oranges you never knew existed, while casting silhouettes over the savannah wildlife. The scenes are so surreal, they brink on Lion King animation.

Photo by Paul Rubio