

Bucket List Trips to Plan a Year in Advance

Excerpted from an article by Melissa Klurman

Bedazzled by the Taj Mahal in India

Tigers, the Taj Mahal, and the Pink City of Jaipur—oh my! All this and even more exotic and spectacular sights are why India tops so many travelers international bucket lists. To see the country in safety and comfort with expert guides, you need to travel with a tour. To find the best one, at the best time (roughly September to March when the weather is most agreeable), booking a year in advance is the only way to be assured of a spot as is the case with India experts Micato Safaris' journeys. Their Soul of India itinerary takes a maximum of 12 guests, so you'll have an intimate experience and don't have to worry about being tightly packed into a tour bus, while visiting Ranthambore (tigers!), Varanasi, "The Triangle" of Delhi, Agra, and Jaipur.