

Dear <<First Name>>

I thought you'd enjoy this beautiful brochure from Micato Safaris.

Enormously well-regarded in the travel industry, Micato was founded 60 years ago by The Pinto Family, who Travel+Leisure says “treat their guests like well-loved, out-of-town relatives.” This is perhaps one reason why Micato has landed in the #1 spot on the Travel+Leisure World's Best Safari Outfitter list a record-breaking ten times.

Plus, Micato sends an African child to school for every guest on safari. It's a journey that may well change your life and will literally change the life of a child.

I'd love to arrange an unforgettable African safari for you with Micato. Reach out anytime — the sooner we start planning, the better!

Warmest regards,
