

Dear <<First Name>>

I thought you'd enjoy this beautiful India brochure from Micato.

Enormously well-regarded in the travel industry, Micato was founded 60 years ago by The Pinto Family, who Travel+Leisure says “treat their guests like well-loved, out-of-town relatives.” The Pintos’ ancestors came to Kenya from the west Indian state of Goa, which very much makes India the ancestral home of Micato.

The Micato commitment to making their ancestral home feel like your home was underscored by journalist Becca Hensley, who writes, accurately, that “traveling with Micato feels much like being escorted through India by old family friends.”

I'd love to arrange an unforgettable India journey for you with Micato.
